THE GRA was recently approached by trial track operators regarding the inability to obtain public liability insurance.

To be registered as a trial track with the GRA it is a requirement of the trial track operator to have some form of insurance cover.

A meeting was held with representatives of registered trial tracks and the GRA in an attempt to formulate a group trial track insurance policy. It is hopeful something can be achieved from this to enable these tracks to remain registered and open to licensees.

NOW that the GRA has classified owners only and syndicates as registered persons and no fee applies, these persons will no longer receive a copy of The Journal.

However, it is pointed out to these groups a Journal is sent to licensed persons i.e. attendants, owner-trainers and public trainers. Should an owner or member of a syndicate want to continue receiving a Journal each month, they are recommended to either take out Journal subscription for $44 per year (11 editions) or become a licensed person.

Our current fee for Attendants is $20.

THE Board recently approved a grant of $17,000 to the Gold Coast club for the purchase of a new tractor to be use in track preparation. The new semaphore board at the Ipswich club is due to be installed this month. The GRA contributed half the cost of $17,000.

Also at Ipswich, improvements have been made to the running rail and lure system by local contractor Bevan Williamson through A.I.M.S. Industrial. The Board's contribution was $20,000.

New promotional gear has been ordered for the GRA. This will include newly designed polo shirts, caps etc.

WHAT wonderful ambassadors for Queensland greyhound racing Bogie Leigh and her connections have become.

Her all-the-way victory in the Group 1 Golden Easter Egg at Wentworth Park was enjoyed by all Queenslanders.

Owner Les Bein and trainer Tony Brett have not been afraid to take on the best Australia-wide and her four Group 1 victories are testament to her greatness.

Many are claiming her Queensland's best ever. And congratulations to Peter Bellamy and Tony Zammit on Surf Lorian equalling of Flying Amy's long-standing track record at Albion Park.
